

Table of Contents

I.	Foreward	Page	5
a.	Purpose of the Manual	Page	8
b.	Vision for the End User of the Manual	Page	8
c.	Word of Thanks to All Contributors	Page	9
II.	Introduction	Page	11
a.	LoanSafe.org & Loan Safe Solutions Company History	Page	11
b.	Results Oriented Auditing and Processing	Page	13
III.	Preliminary Legal Considerations	Page	16
a.	Laws Governing the Business of Loan Modifications	Page	17
b.	Salient Differences Between Client Representation, Auditing and Processing of Loan Modifications	Page	82
c.	Collecting Fees, Employees and Pay	Page	83
d.	Business to Business Considerations, Pitfalls and Possibilities	Page	86
IV.	Who is Your Client?	Page	88
a.	The American Homeowner	Page	88
b.	Psychological State of the American Homeowner in Distress	Page	89
c.	Responsibilities Toward Clientele	Page	91
V.	Overview of the Loan Modification Business	Page	92
a.	Overall Process	Page	92
b.	Reasons to Conduct a Forensic Loan Audit	Page	93
c.	Qualified Written Request	Page	95
d.	The Forensic Loan Audit	Page	95
e.	The Loan Modification	Page	97
f.	How to Determine if Your Client is a Candidate for a Loan Modification	Page	100
g.	Communicating a Hardship Effectively	Page	103
VI.	Client Intake Process	Page	106
a.	Role of the Mortgage Investigator	Page	106
b.	Detailed Outline of Mortgage Investigator Procedures	Page	108
c.	First Call Script and All Associated Documentation	Page	113
d.	Preparing for the Second Call and Prescribing a Solution	Page	122
e.	Second Call Script and All Associated Documentation	Page	124
f.	Specific Resolution Agreements	Page	146
g.	Packaging Client Documentation	Page	156
VII.	The Forensic Loan Audit	Page	160
a.	What the Forensic Loan Audit is	Page	161
b.	What the Forensic Loan Audit Does	Page	216
c.	What the Forensic Loan Audit Does Not Do	Page	218
d.	Detailed Outline of Auditing Procedures	Page	220
e.	Presenting the Results of the Forensic Loan Audit to Your Client	Page	265
f.	Pipeline Management	Page	266
VIII.	Loan Modification Processing	Page	268
a.	Processing Versus Auditing	Page	268
b.	Coordination of Efforts Between Auditing and Attorney(s)	Page	269
c.	Detailed Outline of Processing Procedures	Page	282
d.	Processing Department Forms and Documents	Page	288

e.	Speaking with Lenders, Servicers and Loss Mitigation Departments	Page	293
f.	Negotiating the Loan Modification	Page	293
g.	Resolution of the Loan Modification	Page	295
h.	Pipeline Management	Page	296
i.	Important Lending Contacts, Addresses and Phone Numbers	Page	297
IX.	Marketing	Page	305
a.	Client Correspondence Letters for Use Throughout the Process	Page	305
b.	Acquisition Letters	Page	313
c.	Retention Letters	Page	316
X.	Supplemental Addenda	Page	321
a.	Truth in Lending Act (TILA)	Page	321
b.	Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA)	Page	334
c.	Home Owner Equity Protection Act (HOEPA)	Page	411
d.	California Civil Code Section 2945-2945.11	Page	450
e.	Department of Housing and Urban Development Loan Modification Option	Page	463
f.	FHA Loss Mitigation Program Updates: Mortgagee Letter 2008-21	Page	466
g.	FDIC Loan Modification Program	Page	470
XI.	References	Page	490